

Contents

Contents	3
Contributors	5
Foreword	9
Part One : Introduction	11
Towards a Social History of HIV/AIDS in Sub-Saharan Africa Philippe Denis (University of KwaZulu-Natal)	13
Part Two : The Dynamic of the Epidemic	27
Twenty years of Intervention and Controversy Michel Caraël (UNAIDS, Geneva)	29
The HIV Epidemics in Sub-Saharan Africa: Why So Severe? Why So Heterogeneous? An Epidemiological Perspective Anne Buvé (Institute of Tropical Medicine, Antwerp)	41
AIDS, a Darwinian Event? Alex de Waal (Harvard University) and Alan Whiteside (University of KwaZulu-Natal)	57
Cattle Breeders and the Spread of AIDS in the Lake Chad Basin Yves Zoa (CNE/MINREST, Yaoundé)	73
Part Three : HIV/AIDS in the History of Epidemics	87
Historical perspectives on HIV/AIDS: Lessons from South Africa and Senegal Myron Echenberg (McGill University, Montreal)	89
Historicising the Unspeakable. Legacies of Bad Death and Dangerous Sexuality in South Africa Benedict Carton (George Mason University, Washington DC)	97
The Search for Healing: the AIDS Epidemic in Gwembe Valley Elizabeth Colson (University of California in Berkeley)	113
Part Four : Facing the Challenge of HIV/AIDS	127
Choosing Between Life and Death: Rationing of Health Care During the AIDS Epidemic in South Africa Gerald Oppenheimer (City University New York) and Ronald Bayer (Columbia University)	129

AIDS in Burundi and South Africa : a Day-To-Day Experience Paul Kocheleff (Greys and Edendale Hospitals, Pietermaritzburg)	143
Historical Trends in the HIV/AIDS Training of Health Care Workers in the Western Cape, South Africa, 1990-2003 Stephen van Houten (Consultant)	155
A History of State Action: The Politics of AIDS in Uganda and Senegal James Putzel (London School of Economics)	171
Part Five : Debating HIV/AIDS	185
“Scramble for Cameroon”. Atypical viruses and Scientific Zeal in Cameroon (1985-2000) Guillaume Lachenal (Université Paris 7)	187
Law, Ethics and AIDS in Sub-Saharan Africa. Senegal as a Case Study Charles Becker (CNRS, Dakar)	207
A Oral History of HIV/AIDS in the Congo César Nkuku Khonde (Université de Lubumbashi)	219
Part Six : Bibliography	233
The History of HIV/AIDS in Africa: Bibliography Stephen van Houten (Consultant) and Charles Becker (CNRS, Dakar)	235
Table des matières de la version française	259
Summaries / Sommaires	261